6:54: MISSION TIME CHECK: A Christian ministry in England could not afford to go where people most needed Christ – in the heart of London's financial district. So, the ministry bought a barge, built a church on it, and towed it to where it could be best used – in the heart of London's financial district. St. Peter's Barge holds services during the work week at lunch time to reach those in London's struggling financial markets. Please pray that our churches would have our eyes open to see the needs around us – and find the most creative ways to meet them. In London, England, the time is 11:55am...in Cleveland, Ohio the time is 6:55am... here's Moody Radio news with Gary Bittner.

7:05: Mark has been getting a lot of "puppy mail" lately...here are some samples...
