6:45: Mark and Gary give the listeners a “Jan Update” ...and pray for her recovery...

6:54: MISSION TIME CHECK: In El Salvador, 15-20 percent of the annual gross national product comes from money sent into the country by Salvadorans working in the United States. Please pray today for ministries like Compassion International, World Vision, Joni & Friends, and others who are attempting to break the cycle of poverty that grips so much of Latin America by preparing children for a better future by keeping them in school. At the Love & Hope Children’s Home in Nejapa, El Salvador, the time is 4:55am...in Cleveland, Ohio the time is 6:55am... here’s Moody Radio news with Gary Bittner.

8:15: THE GRAB BAG QUESTION – On this day in 1871, Evangelist D.L. Moody did not give an altar call at the end of his evening meeting in Chicago, but instead, told his congregation to go “think on these things” until the next meeting the following night. Why did that next meeting not happen? The Great Chicago Fire began that night – Moody never ended a service without an altar call from that evening forward...

8:35: JOHN & KENDRA SMILEY are back with today’s “Parenting Like A Pro” segment...when Jesus says, “do not worry”, please remember that it means “do not worry.”
