

WCRF: MORNING PROGRAM

Mark & the Morning Team – November 5, 2009

“There’s a blessin’ in the pressin’!” Pastor Cecil Gamble – Greater Mt. Calvary Church of God in Christ / Cleveland

6:05: ELMER TOWNS was a co-founder of Liberty University with Jerry Falwell. For years, he has seen the church come under great criticism...most of it, undeserved. Today, he talks with Mark about his book What’s Right With The Church.

6:54: MISSION TIME CHECK: In Uzbekistan, Pastor Pavel Peichev and 2 others have been convicted of ‘tax evasion’ by the government. They have been fined $14,000, and barred from any ministry activity for 3 years. Attorneys for the pastor and his team have filed an appeal...they feel this is the first attempt of the government to find a legal way to control Christian ministries in this Central Asian country. Continue to pray for Pastor Peichev and his team today. In Tashkent, Uzbekistan, the time is 4:55pm ...in Cleveland, Ohio, the time is 6:55am...time for Moody Radio News with Gary Bittner...

GIVEAWAYS: What’s Right With The Church by Elmer Towns from Regal Books

The Zimmerman’s Border Collie+”other breeds” puppy – “Benny”...

Peyton Manning was the winning quarterback of Super Bowl XLI. It was a rainy night, and the ball was slippery. Rex Grossman, the quarterback for the losing team, fumbled several times. But Peyton Manning never fumbled. A few weeks after the Super Bowl a reporter discovered that during the year Manning has his center (the one who snaps him the ball), Jeff Saturday, snap him water-soaked footballs. He practices handling wet footballs so he will be ready in case it rains—even though his team plays half of their games in a dome. Manning did what he could do (practice handling wet footballs over and over) to enable him to do what he could not do without this preparation (play great in the rain).
