THE LAST LANGUAGES CAMPAIGN with WYCLIFFE BIBLE TRANSLATORS (DAY 2)

6:15: THE WORD OF THE DAY – asseverate (uh-SEV-uh-rayt), transitive verb; 1. To affirm or declare positively or earnestly. 2. To move in a clumsy manner or with a heavy tread. OR 3. To put forth, as buds.

6:54: MISSION TIME CHECK: In addition to producing New Testament translations, Wycliffe works with like-minded organizations to meet the needs of language communities. This may include work like: Old Testament translation, non-print Scripture projects (audio or visual), literacy training, education, trauma healing workshops, Improved healthcare, and access to clean water. Pray for Moody Radio and Wycliffe Bible Translators’ Last Languages Campaign, as we try to reach the least, the last, and the lost. In Lima, Peru...and in Cleveland, Ohio, the time is 6:55am...time for Moody Radio News with Gary Bittner...

8:15: THE GRAB BAG QUESTION – Wycliffe Bible Translators draws its name from the work of John Wycliffe who produced the first translation of the Bible into English. When did that happen? ...the 1300’s ...the 1500’s... OR ...the 1700’s

“A Christian leader is not a leader because he announced a new idea and tries to convince others of its worth; he is a leader because he faces the world with eyes full of expectation, with the expertise to take away the veil that covers its hidden potential.” – Henri J.M. Nouwen
